Monday 10 October - we are expecting the new chairs to be delivered to the church tomorrow (10th October). If anyone is available to be 'on call' to potentially unload the chairs please let Rachel or Audrey know this morning.

Phatfish

Will be performing on 12th Nov at Kingdom Faith as part of their 'Higher' tour. Tickets are £10 and are available from the Kings Church Office (Call 01403 254241).

Rev Lisa Rainier Lisa is now part of the Ministry Team at TRBC and will be working her hours over a Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Friday. Her day off will be Saturday and she will not be working on a Wednesday or Thursday. Lisa is contactable on the following mobile phone: 0754 642 3706 and email lisa.rainier@trbc.info

Rachel Francis, Church Administrator will be working new hours from this week i.e. Monday mornings and Friday early afternoon. However, until we are fully settled in the new building this is slightly variable. Email remains the best way of making contact.

Salvation Army Christmas Outreach

The Salvation Army will be doing their usual outreach at Christmas - providing parcels of toys and food to as many as they can throughout the district as well as their Christmas Day provisions. They will be asking for volunteers for deliveries on Christmas Eve and collections or taking people home on Christmas Day. Anyone interested in helping - please contact their office.

Arts Festival

Run by the Space Arts Trust, a Christian Arts Charity, at St John's Church and Hall, Broadbridge Heath. This year, the theme is taken from the Psalms and is, "Everything that has breath". The activities are:

- A baroque music concert on the evening of Friday October 14th;
- A choral workshop and concert in the afternoon and evening of Saturday October 15th
- A children's concert in the afternoon of Sunday October 16th; and
- A photographic competition

Further details of the charity etc. are on the links page of the website of the Space Arts Trust at:

South Eastern Baptist Association Women's Ministry have the following events coming up:

- Fellowship Day at Tunbridge Wells Baptist Church on Saturday 1 October 10am - 3pm with speaker Miss Pauline Sweeney on the theme 'A walk through Colossians'
- Ladies Residential Weekend at Pilgrim Hall with speakers Reona Joly and Elizabeth-Ann Horsford on the them 'A word in your ear'. Susan Richardson will be attending this and would love to hear from anyone else who is interested.

Epic trek for charity

Alasdair Roxburgh's brother Nick is currently walking 1,014 miles from Lands End to John O'Groats, climbing the three highest mountains in Scotland, England & Wales along the way. It's a massive challenge, especially as he'll be camping for much of the journey, but it's for a fantastic cause. All donations will go to the Disaster Emergency Committee (DEC), whose members include Tearfund and Christian Aid, and will go specifically to the East Africa crisis appeal. The crisis has affected 12 million people and is the worst drought in the region in 60 years. Your prayers for Nick over the coming months would be hugely appreciated – it is a very demanding challenge both physically and mentally. To find out more and to support him visit www.walking.gb.net or speak to Alasdair or Rachel Roxburgh. Thank you.

Volunteer Questionnaires - we are still collecting these, please hand completed questionnaires to Rachel.
