ENOUGH FOOD FOR EVERYONE

We call for action on tax, aid, land and transparency at the G8

This summer the G8 world leaders are in the UK. We have the opportunity to influence some of the world's most powerful politicians and demand they take action to tackle the root causes of global hunger.

Join Christian Aid and thousands of IF campaigners in London, on Saturday 8th June 2013, as we come together for the biggest campaigning moment since Make Poverty History.

- 11.30am – 12.30pm: the day starts with a service at Westminster Central Hall
- 2pm – 5pm: main event at Hyde Park

At the Big IF Church Service we will join together as the church from across the world to worship and pray together. We will be united by our faith and a deep concern for the nearly one million people who go to bed hungry each night. Led by Church leaders we will then walk to the Big IF Event in Hyde Park. Inside the park there will be a unique opportunity for thousands of people to turn out and demonstrate against world hunger. We are asking you to come and help us create a dazzling display of multi-coloured children's spinning flowers – representing the 2 million children who die because of hunger each year. This epic image will send a message to world leaders that they can't ignore. The one-day extravaganza will also feature live entertainment, children's activities and inspiring speakers from around the globe.

Accommodation request via Horsham Churches Together: My name is Jonathan, and I'm just wondering if you may be able to help me. My fiancé and I soon to be married (in August) and will be relocating to Horsham (or near about) as I will be taking up a new position at Chichester festival theatre. We wondered if there are any Christian landlords in your network who may be looking for tenants...? We are hoping to move in August, with the post beginning in September, and looking to ideally rent, though buying is not out of the question. We can't afford much, though it would be great or see what might be available. Contact details available from Rachel / Church Office
