HCT Harvest Saturday 28th September, The Carfax 9.30 am – 11.30 am

The churches in Horsham will be going out giving cakes and cookies to people in the area around the Carfax. It is an opportunity for the churches to work together and to be seen to be working together, and an opportunity to bless local people and talk to them about our faith. Volunteers are needed to:

- Provide cakes and cookies which are nut free
- Join the team on the morning to give out the cakes and cookies (we will also have fruit for those who eat gluten free products – unless someone would like to offer some gluten free cakes)

sanctum (:mesa) A number of Christian groups have adopted the name Mesa - Spanish for table – to describe a meal based gathering. This type of gathering reminds them of the life and message of Jesus - who frequently used a meal to tell the story of God's welcoming and reconciling love. Sanctum invites you to their own Mesa to share a meal and conversation, as we seek to imagine together how sanctum might be in the coming year. Sunday 29th September, 6:30pm until 8pm @ Trafalgar Road Baptist Church, Horsham

sanctum (:presents) – an evening with Dave Tomlinson

Dave reflects on the themes in his new book – “How to be a bad Christian... and a better human being”.

Wednesday 9th October, 7.30 to 9.00pm @ Trafalgar Road Baptist Church, Horsham

Dave's book is as welcome as a glistening pint to a thirsty patron. Free from religious claptrap and moralistic badgering, Dave's book allows humanity and grace to escape..., and flow into the world we inhabit”, Mike Riddell

“In view of what Dave says about religion and conventional church life, I do hope that a commendation from his Bishop will not put people off reading a book that is so rich in humanity”, Richard Chartres, Bishop of London
